

Artist's Impression – The Chedi Andermatt against stunning backdrop of the alps

COVETED SWISS LIVING

THE CHEDI ANDERMATT RESIDENCES SPELLS THE PREMISE FOR A QUAINT ALPINE HAMLET LIFESTYLE WITH LUXURIOUS 5-STAR OFFERINGS

Swiss living at The Chedi Andermatt is an ideal investment proposition for Asian buyers who are set on owning a piece of lifestyle haven in one of the world's most exclusive enclaves, the Swiss Alps. Ideally situated in the heart of the most popular peaks in the world, The Chedi Andermatt is a luxurious Swiss property—a 5-star contemporary hotel and residences development.

At 1,444 metres above the sea level, Andermatt is a popular tourist spot known for its astounding landscape comprising of high peaks, deep canyons, wild waterfalls, and serene lakes. Throughout the year, the Andermatt displays an unspoilt, yet different side of nature as the seasons change and meadows give way to snow plains.

Being surrounded by stunning landscapes is a given at this coveted destination both for residential and recreational purposes. The Chedi Andermatt, comprising of 50 luxury hotel rooms and 119 well-appointed residences, is the premise for higher living, complete with two gourmet restaurants, lounges, bars, a spa, and a health club. The units include 13 lavish penthouses with fireplaces and exceptional views of the nearby Urseren Valley and other imminent peaks.

Designed by renowned Jean-Michel Gathy of Denniston International Architects and Planners of Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia, The Chedi Andermatt spots a contemporary design that mixes alpine traditional style with the purity of modern lines. Inside, the resort and residences are the combination of casual and elegance, and an environment for relaxation. The residential units are fully

Artist's Impression – A snow-clad residence epitomises swiss living amid a natural environ

Artist's Impression – Library

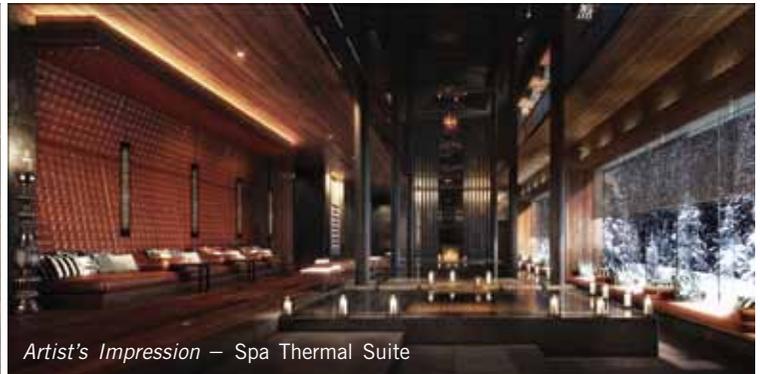

Artist's Impression – Wine Library

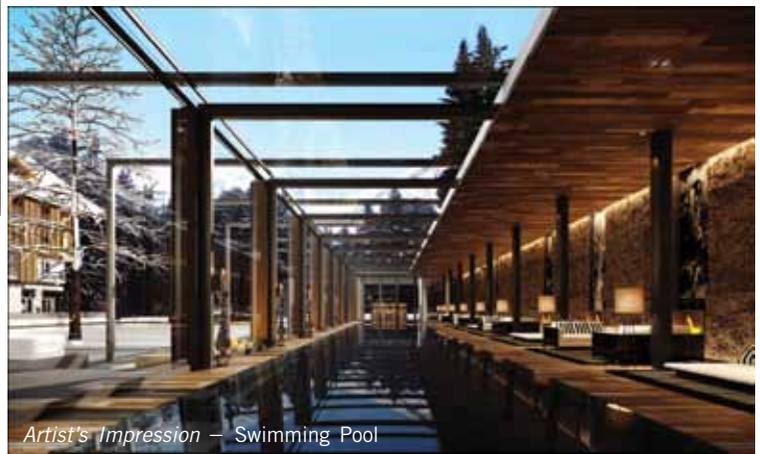

Artist's Impression – Apres-Ski Bar

Artist's Impression – Apartments that denote style and sophistication

Artist's Impression – Spa Thermal Suite

Artist's Impression – Swimming Pool

“Being surrounded by stunning landscapes is a given at this coveted destination both for residential and recreational purposes. The Chedi Andermatt, comprising of 50 luxury hotel rooms and 119 well-appointed residences, is the premise for higher living, complete with two gourmet restaurants, lounges, bars, a spa, and a health club.”

furnished, with the one- and two-bedroom residences ranging in size from 110 to 306 square metres, and the lofts and penthouses ranging from 221 to 655 square metres.

Residences at this esteemed resort will also get to enjoy the amenities in the adjoining hotel, with a spread of Western and European cuisine, the availability of cigars and wines, a stellar selection of health and beauty treats, as well as a après ski bar.

This 5-star development is managed by Singapore based General Hotel Management Ltd to bring about personalised services and the convergence of Asian and Swiss hospitality for an entirely unique experience.

The Chedi Andermatt is the gateway to holiday living in the alps—an opportunity that is not to be missed as the Swiss law has traditionally forbid foreigners to acquire a residential property. However, The Chedi Andermatt is now available for sale with no restriction imposed on foreign buyers. The long-standing history of stability in the political and economic scenes also makes Swiss properties highly favoured for its intrinsic capital gain value in the long haul. Centrally located in Switzerland, Andermatt is also well-connected to major airports in Zurich and Milan, Basel, and Buochs, with travelling time no more than two hours—making it an ideal getaway at one's whim.

For more information about The Chedi Andermatt Residences, please visit <http://www.thechedi-anderematt.com/>